Administrative Regulation

STUDENT USE OF ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION DEVICES

A. Possession of a cellular telephone or other electronic communication devices (ECD) by a student is a privilege which may be forfeited by any student who fails to abide by the terms of this policy, or otherwise engages in misuse of this privilege.

B. The use of cellular telephones and other ECDs in classrooms, halls, locker rooms or bathrooms is strictly prohibited.

C. During the school day and other school activities when directed by an administrator, teacher or other adult in charge, cellular telephones and other ECDs shall be turned off and stored out of sight.

D. A student who possesses a cellular telephone or ECD shall assume responsibility for its care. At no time shall the district be responsible for preventing theft, loss or damage to the cellular telephone or other ECDs brought onto the property.

E. Administrators shall inform students of this policy and administrative regulation upon its passage and therein after shall place notice of this rule in the student handbook. Administration may make appropriate adjustments to the cellular telephone and ECDs policy and administrative regulation as needed as long as it is not inconsistent with the spirit or letter of the policy or administrative regulation.

F. Students and parents will be informed that violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action against the student, which may result in confiscation of the cellular telephone or ECD.
