Ingham ISD's Daryl Tilley Earns CIO Award from Info-Tech Research Group

Daryl Tilley, Executive Director of Information Technology Services at Ingham Intermediate School District (Ingham ISD), has been awarded the 2021 Chief Information Officer (CIO) Award for the Large & Enterprise Division from Info-Tech Research Group. Since 2016, the Info-Tech CIO Awards have recognized outstanding CIOs for delivering exceptional value to their organizations. This achievement demonstrates success in achieving stakeholder satisfaction, the most vital variable for any Information Technology (IT) leader.

Tilley has been employed at Ingham ISD for over 14 years. In his role as Executive Director of Information Technology Services, he oversees all IT components not only for Ingham ISD, but the local districts his department serves as well. He also serves on the organization's cabinet team. Tilley plans to retire in early 2022.

Info-Tech Research Group is the world's fastest-growing information technology research and advisory company, proudly serving over 30,000 IT professionals. The company produces unbiased and highly relevant research to help CIOs and IT leaders make strategic, timely and well-informed decisions. Info-Tech partners closely with IT teams to provide everything they need from actionable tools to analyst guidance, ensuring they deliver measurable results for their organization.

"We are extremely proud to see Daryl acknowledged for the transformative work he has implemented in our Information Technology Services department for many years," notes Jason Mellema, Superintendent for Ingham ISD. "This award showcases the value he and his team have brought to not only our organization, but the local districts they serve as well," Mellema also noted.

"I am honored to be recognized, but it's important to note that this award is really a reflection of the work of our entire team," says Tilley. "I am blessed and humbled to be able to lead this amazing group of professionals," Tilley also noted.
