FEDERAL GOVERNMENT SURPLUS

The Ingham Intermediate School District participates in the federal surplus property program. The purchasing department, or its designee, is the sole authority through which all acquisitions, transactions, requests for surplus property, general information, and visits to the State Agency Warehouse in Lansing are made.