CONFLICT OF INTEREST – PURCHASING

A. Employees engaged in the purchasing function are expected to be familiar with the laws and Board policies relating to conflict of interest and ethical conduct and to conform their behavior to these standards in all business dealings.

B. It is the responsibility of the supervisor of administrative services to make all such employees aware of these laws and policies at the time of employment and to periodically review these to ensure that the employees' understanding is current and clear.

CROSS REFERENCES: 1161.10, also 6131.10 Conflict of Interest – Business Dealings 1161.40, also 6131.40 Conflict of Interest – Gifts and Gratuities

POLICY

Adopted: November 15, 1983