STUDENT USE OF ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION DEVICES

A student may possess a cellular telephone or other electronic communication devices (ECD) in school, on school property, at other school activities and at school related functions, provided that during school hours, other school activities and on school vehicles the cell telephone or other ECD remains off. The superintendent shall develop appropriate administrative regulations, which meet the needs of our students, parents, staff and programs.

LEGAL CITATION:  P.A. 132 2003

POLICY

Adopted: January 20, 2004