STUDENT GRADE REDUCTION AND REMOVAL PROCEDURE

A. GRADE REDUCTION

Any student who fails to meet the academic requirements of a program or fails to follow clearly articulated classroom procedures (i.e. absences from program) may have his/her grade reduced as described in the program handbooks. The grade reduction for special education students is subject to administrative review prior to a decision being rendered as more fully set out in administrative regulation 8440.00-R(1) sections D and E.

B. REMOVAL FROM PROGRAM

Any student, who fails to meet the academic requirements of the program, fails to follow clearly articulated classroom procedures or for disciplinary purposes may be sent back to his/her home school as described in the program handbook. The removal from a program of a special education student is subject to administrative review prior to a decision being rendered as more fully set out in administrative regulation 8440.00-R(1), sections D and E.
